Brief Report

In association with the Department of Chemistry, the Bhoomithrasena Club celebrated World Wetlands Day on February 4, 2025, at Government L.P. School, Thalayolaparambu. As part of the celebration, a photo exhibition titled 'Wetland Lives' was organized, showcasing the rich biodiversity and ecological significance of wetlands. The exhibition aimed to raise awareness among young students about the importance of preserving these fragile ecosystems. In addition, a talk on the 'Importance of Wetlands' was delivered, highlighting the role wetlands play in flood control, water purification, and sustaining diverse flora and fauna. The event successfully engaged the school community and helped spread the message of wetland conservation beyond the college campus.
